

A NATION THAT WOULD FORGET GOD

With Thanksgiving now past, more attention will now be given to the commercialism characteristic of the Christmas season. It is good that our nation sets aside a day to remind us of the Source of our blessings. However, it would be hypocritical for us to neglect to acknowledge Him until this time next year. God gives us warning in Psa. 9:17, “The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all nations that forget God.”

Nations, and not just individuals, are held accountable to God, and are subject to His judgments. Our greatest danger as a nation is not a weakening economy, nor even threats of terrorism, as much as the depravity and godlessness with which we are all too familiar. We will not continue to be a nation protected and blessed by God if the citizens of our great nation cease to acknowledge Him.
